MADRAS HC RAPS TN POLICE, ALLOWS RSS MARCH ON NOV 6

CHENNAI: The Madras High Court on Friday directed Tamil Nadu police to grant permission for an RSS route march on November 6 instead of October 2, as per an earlier order of the court. It warned of contempt action if the order is not followed. After intense arguments between the government and the RSS counsel on a contempt of court petition, Justice G K Ilanthiraiyan passed the latest order | P7

WALK FOR UNITY
An Apolitical Journey to Revive the True Spirit of India
The longest journey begins with a single step, and that significant step was taken at Gundlupet. In the coming days, the walk spearheaded by Rahul Gandhi will cover seven districts, spanning a distance of about 511 kilometres.
THE PURSUIT
Restore communal harmony
Address unemployment
Highlight rampant corruption
Respite from inflation
Farmer and working class upliftment
CALLING KARNATAKA
Sonia & Priyanka Gandhi to join the walk
Badanavalu village in Nanjangud taluk, Mysuru to witness Gandhi Jayanti celebrations
Ballari to host a public convention
Rahul Gandhi to interact with people from all walks of life
In every walk, one receives far more than is sought.
Mekedatu Padayatra and Freedom march in the past proved it.
The Bharat Jodo Yatra will reaffirm the commitment of togetherness in unity.
